THE QUAD FIVE BRASS QUINTET

The Quad Five Brass Quintet is an ensemble that performs various styles of music including traditional marches, jazz, ragtime, spiritual, and classical selections. The ensemble is comprised of two trumpets, one horn, one trombone and one tuba.

The group is best suited for various types of ceremonies (military and civilian), social events (such as balls or dining-ins), and religious functions (such as prayer breakfasts and spiritual fitness events). The Quad Five Brass Quintet has performed on the ESPN show ‘First Take’ and for several other high profile ceremonies. All of our events are free and open to the public!

The ensemble does not require power to perform. They only require five armless chairs and enough room to play comfortably.

A sampling of repertoire includes:

Liberty Bell
Washington Post
Ain’t Misbehavin’
Blue Skies
America the Beautiful
A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square
Be Thou My Vision
Canzona per Sonare No.4
